CCUA Works to Repair Sewer Main Break

Knightboxx Rd. & Old Jennings Rd.

MIDDLEBURG, Fla., August 23, 2024 – The Clay County Utility Authority (CCUA) crews are working to repair a sewer main break at Knightboxx Road and Old Jennings Road.

"CCUA staff are working hard to find the leak and make the appropriate repairs as quickly as possible", said CCUA's Chief Operations Officer, Darryl Muse.

One lane is blocked at the intersection and crews are in the area until the repair is complete.

About Clay County Utility Authority (CCUA)

CCUA is a public utility that manages over 55,000 customer accounts (in the unincorporated area of Clay County and parts of Duval and Bradford Counties) and has nearly 200 employees. We also maintain over 200 pump stations, 22 water treatment facilities, and 7 wastewater treatment and 1,500 miles of utility pipe. CCUA exists as a Special Legislative District, created out of an act of the Florida Legislature in 1994. Our organization is working to protect public health, conserve natural resources, and create long-term value for our ratepayers.
